

FLORIST APPRENTICE OF THE YEAR COMPETITION

To be held at

29th November – 3rd December 2017
The Trusts Arena, Waitakere

This year's theme:

'Celebrating New Zealand's Multi-Cultural Society'

Applications are extended to all apprentice florists
to compete at the prestigious event:

Florists of New Zealand Incorporated are proud to work with the NEW ZEALAND FLOWER AND GARDEN SHOW 2017 to run the Florist Apprentice competitions. This is divided into two categories - Junior and Senior;

- The Junior apprentice of the year Rose Bowl
- The Senior apprentice of the year Rose Bowl
- Senior Prize Major
- Junior Prize Major
- The Junior Worldskills competitor prize
- The Young Horticulturist of the year 2018 representative and prize
- The FLONZI (Florist NZ Incl. Prize)

Competitors also compete for a NZ FLOWER and GARDEN SHOW medal, for their shop-display, as well as undertaking a wide variety of tasks for the trophies and major prizes.

This competition is New Zealand's only contest of its type for up-coming apprentice florists where the age limit is open. It is an amazing opportunity to show-case your creativity to the 60,000+ show visitors and a great boost for your career.

The deadline for receipt of information is the Monday 31st July 2017 by email. Please note that eligibility criterion is a minimum qualification of National Certificate Level 2 by the date of competition OR minimum 2 years in the industry for entry criteria. Competitors should possess good communication skills to fulfill interview demonstration and Speech requirements as needed throughout the competition.

All contestants will forward a CV and a folio of their work to the FLONZI committee with their application.

All competitors will have a range of tasks to complete at the competition all of which will be judged by professional NEW ZEALAND and INTERNATIONAL Florist Judges.
